

Icebreaker Zeus is on her way to Sea of Bothnia

Icebreaker Zeus is on her way to Sea of Bothnia where she will start her icebreaking season. Current cold period has changed ice situation quickly both in Sea of Bothnia and Kvarken area where she'll operate. Zeus has been stand-by in Turku from the beginning of January as a part of icebreaking contract with Finnish Transport Infrastructure Agency (Väylä). Alfonshakans' other icebreaker Thetis started her icebreaking season in the Bay of Bothnia earlier in January.
